

WHY I COMMITTED MY OFFENCE/S

They asked me to

I didn't mean it to happen

Because I felt lonely

She/he is lying

They egged me on to do it

It just happened

It made me feel sexy

It had been on my mind

She/he led me on

They egged me on to do it

She/he asked for it

I dreamed about doing it

It made me feel powerful

I got carried away

I wanted to make friends

I wanted a girlfriend

I didn't think it would cause any harm

It was done to me

She/he loved it

Because it turns me on

I was just showing her/him

I can't remember

I just had to do it

I didn't think

I was only joking

I wasn't violent

I was angry

I was just playing around

No-one will know

I thought it was OK

They smiled at me

It was only a game

I fancied them

They wanted me to do it
